

Indian Valley Community Services District

Indian Valley CSD is looking for a Communications Specialist. The ideal candidate will be responsible for supporting and implementing the district's public relations and communication strategies. Key duties include providing monthly newsletters, timely press releases, managing social media, transcription of meetings, and building relationships with the community. They will also promote district events and assist staff with their communication needs. To apply please send a resume and cover letter to office@indianvalleycsd.com.